APPLICATIONS: Applications may be obtained by mail or in person from the Baltimore City Department of Human Resources, 201 East Baltimore Street, Suite 100, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION: Eligible candidates must pass a job-related physical examination administered by the City.

TESTING FOR DRUGS: Effective October 1, 1994, the City's pre-employment physical examination for all applicants will include substance abuse testing. Substance abuse testing shall also be required prior to promotion to a sensitive job classification.

ELIGIBILITY: Qualified candidates will be considered for vacancies as they arise, for a period of at least one year. The decision of the Director of Human Resources with respect to acceptable minimum qualifications is final.

SERVICE FEE: City employees who are represented by a union will be required to become union members or to pay a service fee as a condition of continuing employment after completion of a probationary period.

PROBATION: All persons, including current City employees, selected from an eligible list resulting from this examination will be on probation for six months.

NOTE: Appointees to this classification will be required to successfully complete or to have completed a formal training program conducted through a joint effort of the Departments of Housing, Health, Public Works, Fire and Police. Successful appointees will be expected to meet the following requirements as a condition of probation:

- Pass a written examination with a minimum of 70% score.
- Pass a road test administered by the Training Officer(s).
- Receive a satisfactory field training report based on the On-The-Job training.

SELECTION PROCESS: All candidates indicating the minimum qualifications on their applications will be placed on the eligible list without further examination. The license, training and experience of each candidate will be evaluated for appropriateness and quantity. It is essential, therefore, that you give complete and accurate information on your application. Vagueness or omission may prevent you from being considered for the position. Qualified candidates will not be listed in rank order.
